

SHELBY COUNTY

Legal Analysis and Disparity Study

You Are Invited to Attend a Business Community Meeting

Tuesday, April 7, 2015

County Commission Chambers
160 N. Main Street
Memphis, TN 38103
11:30am to 1:30pm

Shelby County will host a business community meeting to inform local businesses and members of the community about the County's Legal Analysis and Disparity Study. The Study will evaluate whether local minority and woman-owned business enterprises in Shelby County have equal access to contract opportunities. All local minority and woman-owned businesses are invited to attend.

The business community meeting will give local businesses the opportunity to share their experiences contracting with Shelby County, and to learn about new contracting opportunities.

Refreshments will be served.

Mason Tillman Associates, Ltd., a national public policy firm, is conducting the Legal Analysis and Disparity Study. Mason Tillman has conducted 131 disparity studies nationwide.
